"Oh, what's that smell?"

"It's the pudding!"

"Oh, look a shiny button! This is fun!"

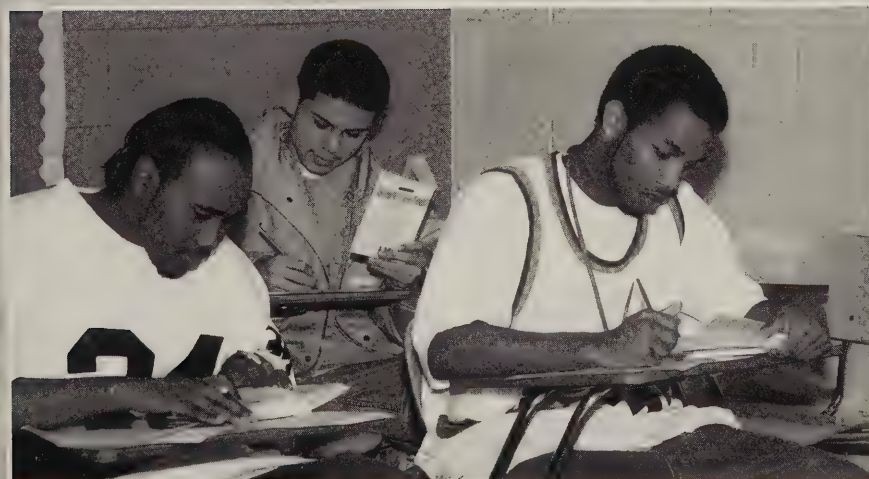

"Move it, DIVA coming through!"

"Oh, let me tell you what happened!
Are you paying attention?"

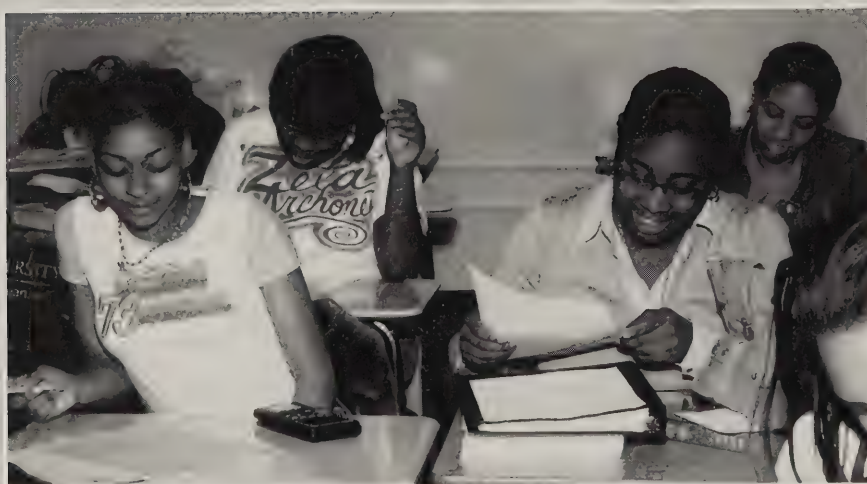

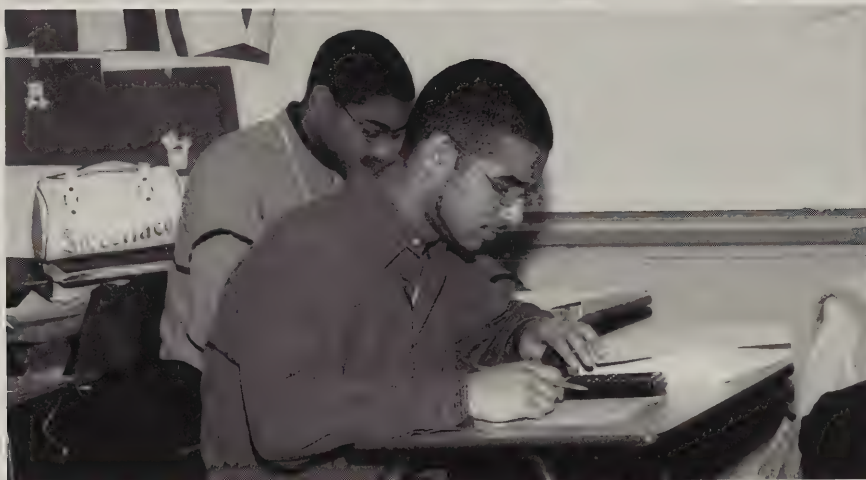

"I don't even know what I'm reading."

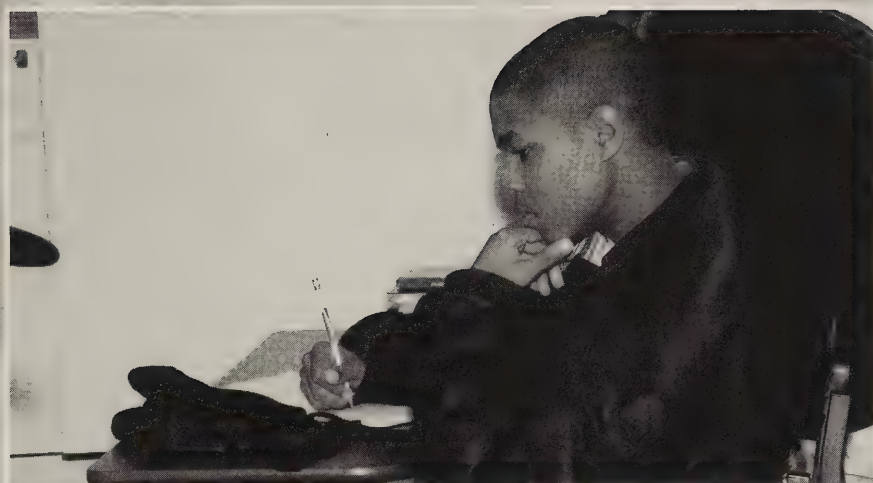

"Darn, I said Sarah instead of Carey!"

"Don't fall asleep. Don't fall asleep."

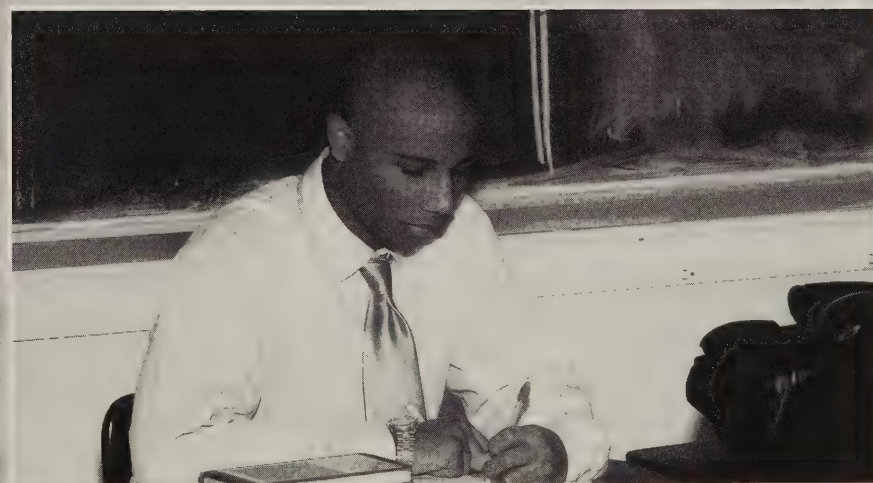

"Am i the only one who hears Destiny's Child in the background! Hey ... Ho!"

"Yes, I think my right side is my best side too."

"I don't want to do this problem."
"Minus Points!"

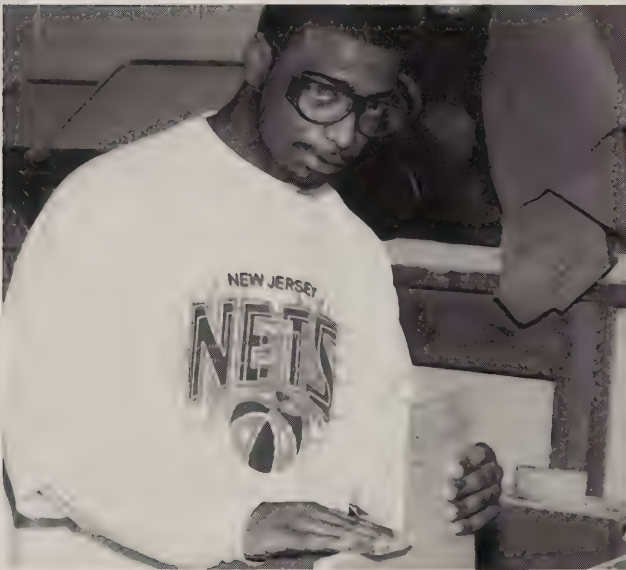

"This book is a great. Book Title: 101 Ways to beat The popular, handsome and smart Jamar Braddy in the 2004 Homecoming Elections."

"I'm just going to smile and act like I'm talking to someone, even though I am sitting next to a wall."

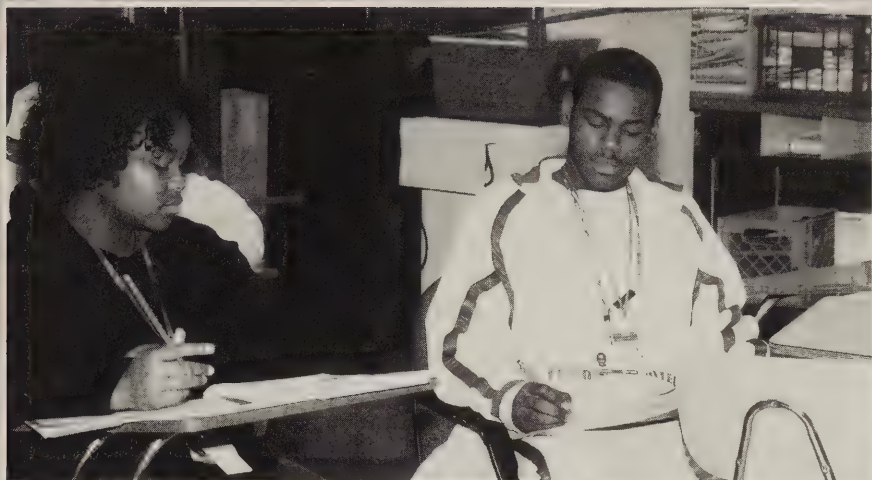

"I wonder what I'm going to eat for lunch?"

"If I don't move, maybe they won't see me."

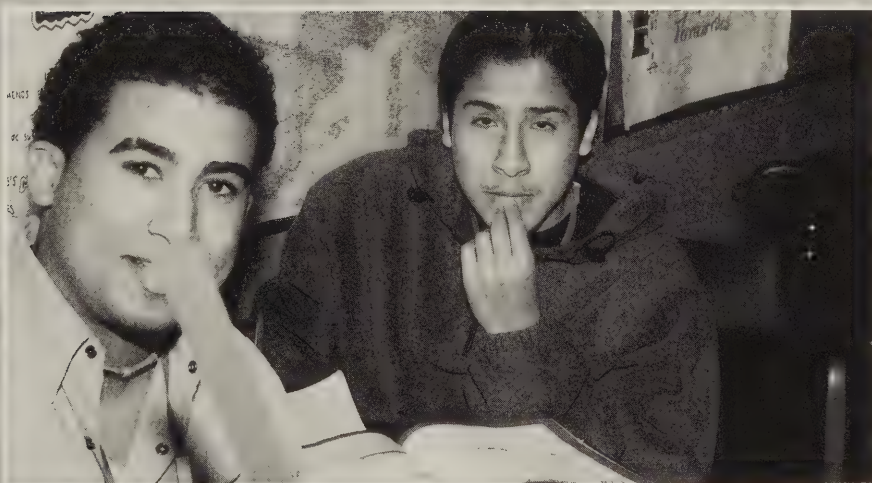

"This is my Picasso!"

"If I close my eyes real hard, maybe she'll disappear.", "Nope, I'm still here."

"Stop looking at me that way, I am not going to eat the glue!", "I don't know cause last time ..."

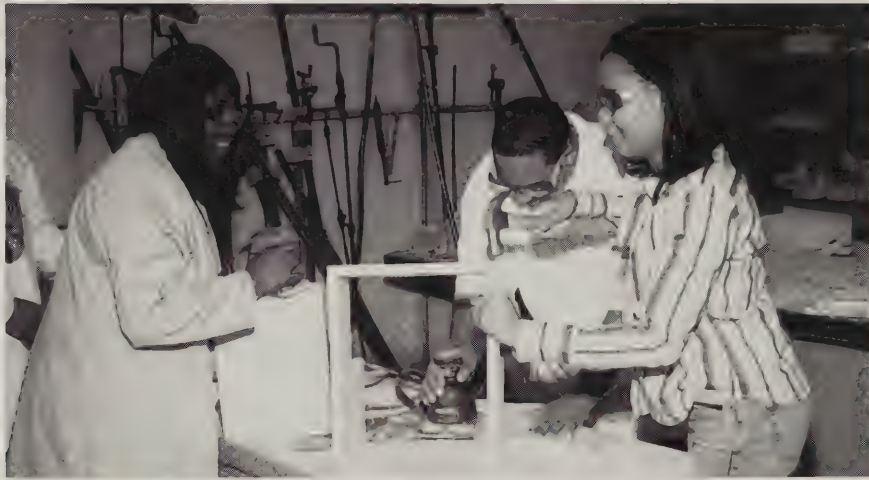

"My finger tastes real good. How does that ruler taste?"

"Man, you're doing it wrong, this is how you buff! Wax-on, Wax-off."

"This hammer is too heavy; do you have something light, like a nail filer?"

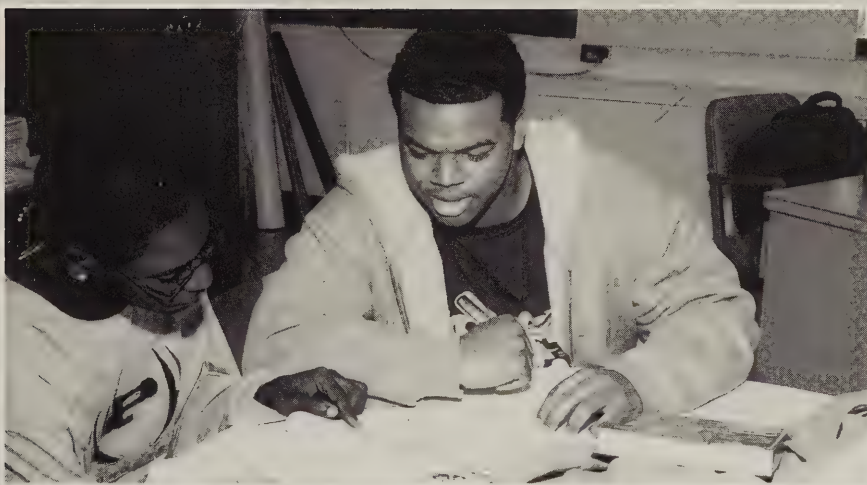

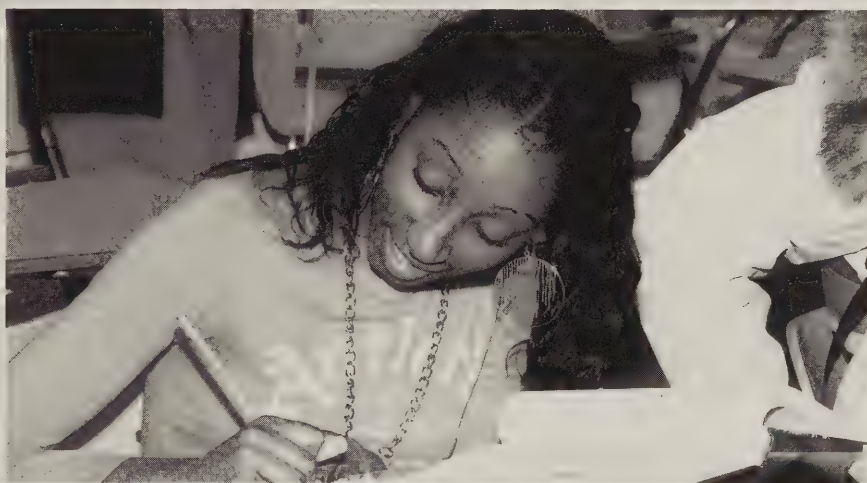

"WHAT is she doing, I can't see anything!"

"Want to know something funny, this isn't my class?"

"I can't wait till school is over so I can get my nails done!"

"No, I'm telling you $2+2$ really is 5!"

"This book makes no sense."

"I think this is the right definition?"

"Didn't I say no pictures!"

As a graduate of Plainfield High School, you have reached an important milestone in your lives and I am proud that your educational journey has prepared you to begin your life-affirming odyssey. Globally, much around you has been in a state of flux, and has challenged you in ways often unimaginable. However, your education has centered your life at PHS and your academic success clearly substantiates that you have taken the challenge seriously. I will miss all of you dearly and feel that our school will also miss your powerful presence in ways unimaginable, yet, I remain confident the class of 2005 is prepared to become agents of change and make America a better place to live.

We laud your efforts to change the cultural of PHS and make it an even better school. Your efforts as mentors, big brothers and big sisters have raised the academic bar at our school, and as the underclassmen must continue your legacy. I remain steadfast in my unequivocal belief in all students of PHS realizing their dreams and aspirations as an alumnus of our excellent educational institute. As graduates, you join an illustrious alumnus and it is the hope of all who had a role in your academic odyssey that you will never ever forget Plainfield High because we certainly can never forget you!

☐ Much success in your lives and never forget you owe those who have come before you, the many men and women who paved the way for your success. Let us never forget the wonderful achievements and accomplishments of people like W.E.B. Dubois, Cornell West, your parents, loved ones, teachers, guidance counselors, and countless others who have indirectly or directly influenced your academic and personal successes. Make them proud, make us proud, we believe in you and will always hold a special place in our hearts for all of you!

Jelani,

I am so proud of you and your accomplishments. I wish you success in the start of your adult life.

Love your,
Mom

To those of you who will spend hours perusing this volume looking for grammatical errors, miss-spelling, and improper grammar have fun, for you will find loads of them. For those of you who will spend hours perusing this volume looking for friendly faces, sports, activities and remembered good times; have fun, for our tiny staff has spent months, days, weeks, and hours preparing these pages for your future enjoyment. If it pleases you, we are pleased. If it does not please you we are sorry. We've given it our best shot.

Jordan,

I am very proud of you! I always knew you could do it. I thank God for you everyday. Always be the best you can be!

A Message To The Class Of 2005:

As a graduate of Plainfield High School you have reached an important milestone in your lives and I am proud that your educational journey has prepared you to begin your life-affirming odyssey. Globally, much around you has been in a state of flux, and has challenged you in ways often unimaginable. However, your education has centered your life at PHS and your academic success clearly substantiates that you have taken the challenge seriously. I will miss all of you dearly and feel that our school will also miss your powerful presence in ways unimaginable, yet, I remain confident the class of 2005 is prepared to become agents of change and make America a better place to live.

We laud your efforts to change the cultural of PHS and make it and even better school. Your efforts as mentors, big brothers and big sisters have raised the academic bar at our school, and as the underclassmen must continue your legacy. I remain steadfast in my unequivocal belief in all students of PHS realizing their dreams and aspirations as an alumnus of our excellent educational institute. As graduates, you join an illustrious alumnus and it is the hope of all who had a role in your academic odyssey that you will never ever forget Plainfield High because we certainly can never forget you!

Much success in your lives and never forget you owe those who have come before you, the many men and women who paved the way for your success. Lest we never forget, the wonderful achievements and accomplishments of people like W.E.B. Dubois, Cornell West, your parents, loved ones, teachers, guidance counselors, and countless others; who have indirectly or directly influenced your academic and personal successes. Make them proud make us proud we believe in you and will always hold a special place in our hearts for all of you!

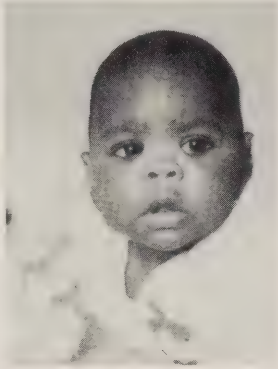

Otis Brown, Principal

Lovern,
The day you were born was the happiest day in my life. Now you are about to venture into the world and make me proud. "I am so happy!"
Mom

Simone,
You have been a blessing since the day you were born. Always remember "What lies behind you and what lies in front of you are tiny matters compared to what lies within you."
We love you!
Mom, Dad and Spencer

To our first born, Tylie,
We are ever so thankful that God has blessed us with such a wise, intelligent and responsible young man. Our prayer is that you would continue to reach your highest potential that life has for you. Congratulations on your achievement!
God bless you,
Mom and Dad

Para Yoyito:
Damos gracias a Dios por tener y darnos un niño especial como tu. Estas en el inicio de una gran realización en tu vida sigue por el buen camino que con mucho sacrificio y valor lo lograras, siendo el ejemplo de tus hermanos y el orgullo de tu familia.
Te queremos mucho,
Tus Papis, Hermanso y Melany

Janira,
You are graduating high school and we are so proud of you. We know it will not stop here. "The sky's the limit!"
We love you baby,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Aaron,
You have been a blessing from day one. As you go onto college try to avoid the many obstacles and temptation that you are sure to encounter as you enter college and the game of life.
Always keep your eye on the prize!
We Love You,
Mom, Dad and Devyn

Leonard James

A life gone too soon just before the flower could fully bloom, who would've thought on that particular day, it was your life, that would be taken away. Although we cried and still hurt inside, we've wiped our eyes and we're standing with pride. For we all know Leonard truly didn't die. He had so many friends; he touched so many lives that on graduation day 2005, we know Leonard will be there right by our side.

From William Daves & the Class of 2005

A Dedication for Leo

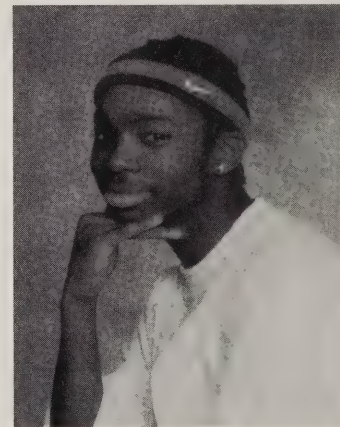

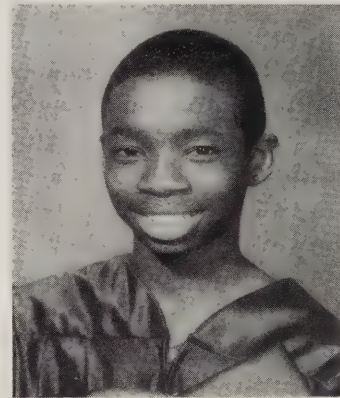

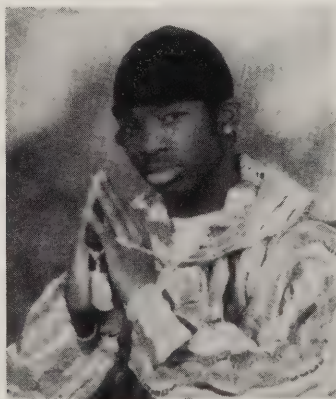

March 14th will never be forgotten.
The tears we cried and the undefined
Pain we suffered will always be remembered.
Although you are not present with us,
Your intelligent spirit will forever live on.
Your dreams for the future
Will be fulfilled through our success in life.
We dedicate our diploma's to you.
We dedicate that special graduation day to you.
We dedicate this yearbook to you.
Leonard we will always miss you,
And we are determined to make history for you.

- Mournfully and Respectfully,

Tyler R. Shider
